Scaling Student Potential with LifeVitae

Academic Committee, VSIT organized a Webinar on “Scaling Student Potential with LifeVitae” on 16th March 2021 for the IT Students. Ms Ritu Khare Head, Ecosystem Partnership at LifeVitae and Ms Charishma Verghese, Head of Marketing and Outreach at LifeVitae were the esteemed speakers for the event.

The program started with a brief introduction of the speakers and Life Vitae. LifeVitae is the world's first life skills platform, combining deep technology with an AI-powered data science algorithm, allowing educators to help students curate the most important skills of their life. It unlocks human potential by profiling individuals on a 6-point Life Powers framework adapted from the UNESCO-WHO Life Skills Model.

The speaker, Ms. Charishma Varghese presented various aspects where the student can enhance its potential and achieve great success in future. Key points of her valuable inputs were:

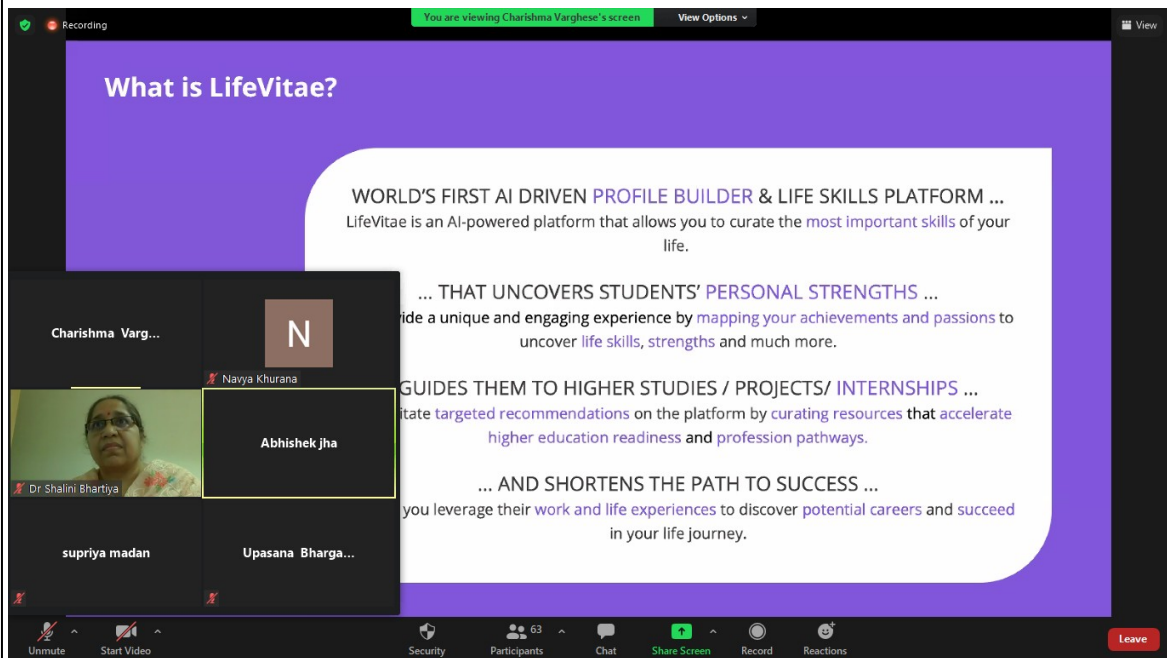

- Identify your capabilities, how you leverage your skills, building your narrative and showcasing your talent.
- Life moments: Share it with others as they to define your future prospects.
- Curate challenges, build your strength, be a part of the network, polish your skills as these are the things that will help in your future workforce.

The speaker, Ms. Ritu Khare gave an insight into the need of the recruiters and what they look while recruiting a student. The key points of her discussion are as follows:

- Recruiters these days now look for adaptive nature, soft skills, and technical skills.
- There are various challenges like you need to have active networking, a community of people like with your seniors which can grow your commercial awareness and being you various opportunities.
- About all your experiences how they have shaped you as compared to your past plays a vital role.
